WALLINGTON ESTATE

PINOT GRIGIO 2024

Pale lemon in appearance. Fresh refined nose exhibiting green fruits and citrus. Upfront fruit palate and citrus notes. Firm acid with a crisp and refined finish.

ROSÈ 2024

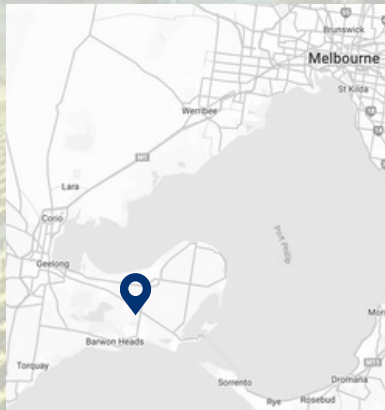

Palepinkin appearance. Lifted and perfumed with raspberry and strawberry fruits rounded out by scents of violets. Juicy and fresh with raspberry and strawberry fruits dominating with floral notes and savory flavours on the back palate. Firm acid and a dry finish.

CHARDONNAY 2024

Pale gold in appearance. Medium nose exhibiting pear, nectarine and melon fruits with a subtle buttery creaminess. Upfront pear nectarine and fresh peach fruits with a slight creaminess mid palate. The wine is rounded out with firm acid and a medium length.

PINOT NOIR 2023

Mid ruby in appearance. Lifted nose of plums, raspberry and violets, with earthy background. Full and juicy showing candy notes, cherry and raspberry with firm acid and subtle tannin. Spicy charred oak the mid to back palate.

PREMIUM WINES & LUXURY ACCOMMODATION IN THE HEART OF THE BELLARINE PENINSULA

First planted in 1995, the vines at McGlashan's Wallington Estate grow in sandy loam over buckshot clay—ideal for cool-climate varieties. The combination of soil type and maritime breeze produces fresh, balanced wines with a focus on quality and regional character
